LEATHER INFORMATION

- No two pieces of leather furniture are exactly the same. Color variations and distinctive natural markings make each piece of leather furniture unique.
- Color variation is a natural occurrence with pure aniline dyed top grain leathers. In the dying process no pigments are used. Each hide absorbs “color” in varying amounts based on individual cell structure so even areas within the same hide may vary in color.
- Color variation is an inherent quality of the antiquing process in hand antiqued leather.
- Healed scars, scratches, insect bites, brands and wrinkles provide another dimension of individuality to leather. All of the above are natural characteristics of leather and are not considered defects by HC.

LEATHER INFORMATION

CHEYENNE | GRADE H

CHEYENNE is a smart choice for the customer looking for a wax/crackle leather that won't easily scratch. CHEYENNE provides that desirable vintage look but offers a protective finish making it suitable for high traffic area. Each hide is aniline dyed and receives a special protective wax top coat for durability and softness. Due to the inherent nature of this raw material, scratches, bruises, scars and insect bites may be noticeable but only add to the richness of a vintage leather

CLASSICO | GRADE G

CLASSICO is the go to leather where the demands for durability and value are the top priority. The color options are a minimalist approach that is current and relevant. Classico is aniline dyed with a protective finish giving the leather consistent graining and color. Its suppleness is perfect for residential use yet its unique and durable finish makes it a great choice for high use commercial applications too.

CAPRONE | GRADE L

Casual elegance and a large color palette make CAPRONE an easy choice when selecting leather. This color consistent and durable upholstery leather provides a soft drape and hand that tailors exceptionally well. Produced on select European hides this collection provides a premium quality at an affordable grade. CAPRONE is specified to meet the requirements for contract and hospitality uses.

OLD ENGLISH | GRADE L

OLD ENGLISH is a domestic top grain, aniline dyed leather that features the Old World craftsmanship of a hand rubbed antiqued finish and is frequently referred to as a glazed leather because of its high sheen. The antiquing which gives this fine leather its distinctive and unique look is applied completely by hand. OLD ENGLISH is available in 9 stunning relevant colors and is an excellent hand antiqued leather choice for the discriminating contract customer.

REVELATION | GRADE J

All of the beauty that makes an antique leather desirable is offered in REVELATION at a value price. The soft hand and subtle two tone effect of this leather adds dramatic color depth and produces a look that is ageless and inviting. The authentic personality of REVELATION adapts to any setting and will include natural leather characteristics.

HAMPTON | GRADE J

Produced using superior European hides, Hampton is a lightly corrected pigmented leather with a small natural embossed grain and an incredibly soft hand. Available in 44 design driven colors, Hampton is an excellent leather value and a preferred choice of specifier's in a variety of industries and applications.

SOFTY | GRADE G

Value priced, SOFTY is an aniline dled leather with a protective finish topped off with a grain assist allowing a consistent even pebble grain and color.
